

LEVEL 3

Management of Child Protection

Target Groups

The course is aimed at those working within voluntary, charitable, community and commercial organisations that provide services or activities for children and young people and/or their families. You should hold a managerial position and have responsibility for the development and promotion of child protection strategies and practices within your organization together with the recruitment of staff or volunteers.

Number of Students

The course can be taught to a minimum of 5 and to a maximum of 10 students.

Duration

6 Hours

Cost Per Person
£155 (Inc. VAT)

Following the completion of Level 1 & 2 this builds on the basic principles and develops the ethos that children who enter any educational setting whether classroom based or practically based through the sport, leisure or entertainment industries, must have the confidence that the service provider has taken steps to ensure that they

- Provide a safe environment for them to grow and develop
- Identify those children who are suffering or likely to suffer significant harm and take appropriate action with the aim of making sure they are kept safe both at home and in the educational setting

Regular refresher training should also be provided at least every three years.

Content

- ◆ Builds on Levels 1 & 2 material
- ◆ Identifies safeguarding and systems to promote the welfare of children
- ◆ Examines recruitment and vetting processes
- ◆ Dealing with allegations against staff
- ◆ Legislation

Aims and Objectives

- ◆ Prevent unsuitable people working with children & young people
- ◆ Promote safe practices and challenge poor and unsafe practices
- ◆ Identify grounds for concern and initiate appropriate action
- ◆ Contribute to effective partnership working

Features and Benefits

It is the responsibility of your company management to establish recruitment and selection procedures and other human resources management processes that are designed to deter, reject or identify people who might abuse children or are otherwise unsuited to work with them.

The systems should apply to all those who come into contact with children under 18 years of age whether through paid or voluntary work.

Children and Young Persons have a fundamental right to enjoy sport free from all forms abuse and exploitation.

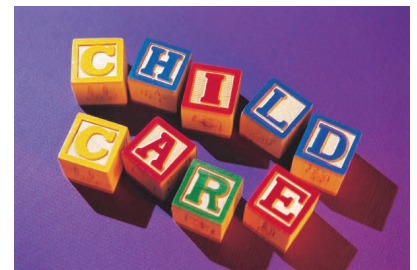

The organisations who provide venues and services that are designed to promote and encourage participation of children in all types of sport and leisure activities, have a duty of care to those children and a legal obligation to ensure their safety

Course Structure

All training places the child at the centre and promotes the importance of understanding the child's daily life experiences, ascertaining their wishes and feelings, listening to the child and never losing sight of his or her needs

The course is taught over 6 hours which include sufficient breaks.

Participants are encouraged to share their experiences through group tasks and feedback sessions

The content of training programmes are regularly reviewed and updated in the light of changing policy and legislation, research, learning from SCRs, child death reviews and practice experience, and always reinforce the centrality of the child's welfare is paramount
